ATTIRE: SHOES

Leather or Synthetic Shoes in Halacha

In Jewish law, only leather shoes are considered to be "shoes" for purposes of the Nine Days, mourning, Yom Kippur, shiv'a, or ritual impurity. Non-leather shoes may normally be worn during those periods.

© Copyright 2024 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com