On What To Say SheHecheyanu

Say she'hecheyanu on any item that you acquire through any of the following means, as long as the item gives you pleasure:

- Gifts.
- Purchases you made.
- Used items that you acquire.

NOTE If the item would be desirable or a luxury to other people, but it is not to you, or if it only has value to you as a useful item, do not say she'hecheyanu.

NOTE From Richard Aiken --I said s*he'hecheyanu* on my scuba diving equipment and on my paragliders, the first time I used them.)
