Jewish Festivals: Permanent Knots

You may not tie permanent knots on Jewish festivals (and Shabbat).

NOTE A permanent knot is a knot intended to remain tied for at least 24 hours. Any strings you connect on Jewish festivals must be able to easily come undone, such as a bow.

NOTE Since opinions differ on what constitutes a permanent knot, we do not even tie knots that are intended to be untied, such as a double figure-eight knot.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com