

Introduction to Three Matzas (Matzot)

The seder table also has a stack of three matzas (matzot), representing, among other meanings:

- Cohen-Levi-Yisrael: The three divisions of Jews
- Abraham-Isaac-Jacob: The three forefathers

These matzot are used later in the seder for the steps of Motzi and Matza (top and middle matzas); the middle matza becomes the “Afikoman.”