Sukkot: Sleeping at Someone Else's House

If you sleep at another person's house or sukka during Sukkat, you should consider their sukka as being yours. You do not say the blessing leisheiv ba'sukka except if you eat bread or mezonot there.

© Copyright 2025 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com