Baby Care instead of Praying

A mother of young children who require her continual attention should skip saying prayers, even for an entire day, if it will take her attention away from caring for her baby.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com