

Introduction to Firsts (Reishit)

Jews thank God for His blessings by giving Him the “first” (reishit) of various products (as well as a tenth/ma'aser of agricultural and other wealth).

“First” applies to:

- First-Born/Petter Rechem

- First-born male children/petter rechem (redeemed with money; see Introduction to Pidyon HaRein).
- First-born male kosher domestic animals (calf, lamb, kid)/petter rechem (in Temple times: sacrificed on altar; now, permanent holy status--see Selling Mother Animal before Birth of Petter Rechem).
- First-born male donkeys/petter rechem chamor (redeemed with sheep/goat; holiness of both the donkey and the sheep or goat then disappears).

- Dough/Challa

In Temple times, given to cohen; now, see When To Separate Challa \(Hafrashat Challa\).

- First Fruits/Bikurim

In Temple times, the Jew (man or woman) brought the bikurim fruits to the area between altar and Temple building; only the man said the

- First Shearing/Reishit HaGeiz

Portion of sheep's wool (reishit ha'geiz) (given to cohen).

NOTE

All of the above have holy status except for the wool and the human petter rechem.
