Attire: Blessings and Torah Study

The minimum attire required for saying blessings or studying Torah is shorts for men and a covered torso for women. But more of your body may need to be covered due to location and circumstances. For example, if men are in view, women's tzni'ut rules take over since they are more restrictive.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com