REVENGE (NEKAMA)

You May Not Take Revenge

You may not take revenge on someone.

EXAMPLE You ask for a favor--to borrow an item or for help--and you get refused. Later, if that person asks to borrow something of yours or for help, you may not refuse, saying "No, because you did not lend to me (or help me) when I asked."

NOTE Revenge applies to loaning money but also deals with other cases.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com